

Here is the planned index for the Tuscany Trip sequel to the London Taboo story, structured as a natural continuation of the established arc. This outline builds on the full family acceptance achieved in London (David, Kelly, Holly, Liam, Mandy, Megan all bonded in the orgy), now moving to a luxurious villa in Tuscany for a longer, more isolated summer holiday. The pacing escalates further with deeper emotional layers, new power dynamics, outdoor/public risks, and potential new characters (e.g., Noah as voyeur entry point).

This index maintains the slow-burn, multi-sensory, taboo-intense style of the London arc, while expanding the setting to the Italian countryside (villa, pool, vineyard, city). It introduces Noah's voyeur arc as a natural escalation and keeps all core characters central.

If you'd like me to begin writing any part (e.g., Part 1A) in the current vivid style, just say the word! 🍆
